MU launches programme on sustainable culture of indigenous fish

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : Manipur University, in collaboration with the ICAR-National Bureau of Fish Genetic Resources (ICAR-NBFGR), Lucknow, on Tuesday inaugurated a two-day capacity building programme on "Sustainable Culture of Indigenous Fish" for Scheduled Caste farmers and entrepreneurs at the VC Court Hall, MU, Canchipur.

Organised by the Freshwater Ichthyology and Sustainable Aquaculture Laboratory (FISA Lab), Department of Zoology under the Scheduled Caste Sub-Plan, the programme aims to promote scientific breeding of indigenous fish, strengthen farmers' technical skills and create livelihood opportunities.

Vice-Chancellor Prof RK Hemakumar Singh attended as chief guest, while Prof N Mohilal Meitei, Dean, School of Life Sciences and Prof L Rajendrakumar Singh, Finance Officer, attended as guests of honour.

The function was presided over by Prof Ksh Birla Singh, Head, Department of Zoology.

In his address, Prof RK Hemakumar said university research must benefit farmers and disadvantaged communities.

He urged researchers to maintain regular contact with farmers through WhatsApp, video calls and field visits to guide them on water quality and fish rearing.

Programme Coordinator Dr Rameshori Yumnam said Manipur faces an annual fish deficit of about 19,500 MT, causing Rs 400 crore outflow to other States.

She said the training focuses on Pengba and Ngakrijou, whose market price ranges from Rs 500-1500 and Rs 2000-2500 per kg respectively.

She informed that the university has secured a Rs 4 crore project under PM Matsya Sampada Yojana for indigenous fish breeding infrastructure.

Farmers were provided fish seed and water quality monitoring kits.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr Maisnam Manorama Devi.

TB screening campaign launched

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : A one-month HH X-Ray TB screening campaign (Active Case Finding) was launched across all districts of Manipur on Tuesday at the Temporary Shelter Home, Sajiwa, Imphal East.

The campaign targets screening of 7,500 people and began with screening of IDPs at the camp. More than 100 individuals out of 756 IDPs present were screened on the first day, along with screening for NCD, HIV and Syphilis.

The programme was chaired by Dr Lourembam Indira, Chief Medical Officer and District AIDS Control Officer, Imphal East.

Special guests included Dr Joyson, Deputy Director, Prevention Division, MACS; Soubhagya Chakrabarty, Programme Manager- Prison and OCS Intervention; Sadananda, State Point Person, India HIV/AIDS Alliance, Manipur; and Suresh, Secretary, IDP Temporary Shelter Home.

Facilitated by Raj Nongthombam, State Programme Manager, India HIV/AIDS Alliance, the programme highlighted the importance of early TB screening and timely treatment to prevent spread and improve outcomes.

The campaign is being implemented with support of MACS, CMO Imphal East and TB team of Imphal East. It was formally launched by the CMO Imphal East along with Deputy Director MACS, India HIV/AIDS Alliance National Team and HH X-Ray team from AKROSS and SHARDA IMAGING, New Delhi.

Provide crop compensation ahead of Ningol Chakkouba : AMFFU

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : All Manipur Fishery Farmers Union (AMFFU) has urged the Government to provide crop compensation to farmers and fish farmers affected by floods, drought and hailstorm in the last three years ahead of Ningol Chakkouba festival.

Addressing media at Thangjing Hall, Manipur Press Club, Majorkhul today, AMFFU general secretary Angom Tiken said in 2024, large areas of Manipur valley were devastated by floods, with water even entering Raj Bhavan, and floods occurred thrice that year.

In 2025, the valley again faced floods, while this year drought and hailstorm destroyed crops and livestock, including fish and poultry reared at homes.

He said though the Central Government had sanctioned crores of rupees as compensation for these calamities in the last three years, farmers and fish farmers are yet to receive it.

He appealed to the Government to release the assistance before Ningol Chakkouba so that farmers can celebrate the festival.

'Promote local economy this Ningol Chakkouba'

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : Salai Apunba Nupi Lamjing Lup (SANULAL) has appealed to use only locally produced items during Ningol Chakkouba festival on November 11.

Addressing the media at Thangjing Hall, Manipur Press Club today, SANULAL president Th Ibethoi Leima said the economic condition of the people has been severely hit since the outbreak of the conflict in May 2023.

She appealed to married women visiting parental homes to gift local products and to parents and brothers to give local items as gifts, so that the festival is celebrated without harming the local economy.

She also urged CSOs, youth clubs and Meira Paibi groups to host Ningol Chakouba for displaced women staying in relief camps for the past 3 years and 6 months due to the conflict.

SANULAL will include displaced women in the celebration, she added.

PWF disburses Rs 2 lakh medical aid, invites applications for Phase-II

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : The Paomee Welfare Foundation (PWF), a trust of the All Manipur Working Journalists' Union (AMWJU), has disbursed Rs 2 lakh under its Medical Financial Assistance (MFA) Scheme for Phase-I of 2026-27, covering treatment expenses from April 1 to September 30, 2026.

Of six applications received, five were approved after scrutiny by the Medical Board and Board of Trustees. One application of Impact TV's Maibam Sonali Devi for her father-in-law's treatment was rejected as the patient did not qualify as a dependent family member.

At a ceremony held at Manipur Press Club yesterday in presence of Chairperson N Tombiraj and Secretary Borun Thokchom, Late Okram Homendro Singh of Poknapham and Late G Naocha Sharma of Imphal Times were given Rs 50,000 each, Jessia Oinam of ISTV Rs 28,000, Yensenbam Rajesh Singh of The Sangai Express Rs 26,000 and Soubam Bukuljaoba Meitei Rs 26,000.

PWF also reimbursed Rs 20,000 to AMWJU.

Civic action programmes conducted

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : Under the aegis of IG Manipur-Nagaland Sector, CRPF, the 86 Battalion CRPF conducted Civic Action Programmes at Neikanlong village and Khunthoknganbi Upper Primary School, Thangmeiband in Imphal West on Tuesday.

The programmes were held under supervision of Ravindra Kumar, Second-in-Command holding charge of Commandant, 86 Bn.

At Neikanlong, chief guest Dr Florence Dangmei, CMO (SG) 86 Bn CRPF in presence of W Nandini Devi, Second-in-Command, 86 Bn and officers and personnel of the battalion distributed sewing machines along with accessories to beneficiaries.

Interacting with villagers, Dr Florence said the distribution was aimed at enhancing income-generating capacity of women, promoting self-reliance and empowering them to improve their livelihoods.

At Khunthoknganbi Upper Primary School, Ravindra Kumar handed over a UF+UV water filtration plant to the school, emphasizing that it would provide safe and clean drinking water to staff and students and contribute to better health and hygiene.

Highlighting the importance of such welfare initiatives, he said such programmes are intended to address basic needs of the local population, strengthen mutual trust and goodwill and foster positive relations between CRPF and local communities.

Village chairmen, teachers and locals lauded the initiative for strengthening trust and goodwill between CRPF and local communities.

MANITEX 2026 should be business platform, not just exhibition: ACS

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Manipur, Anurag Bajpai on Monday inspected the ongoing preparations for MANITEX 2026 at Nilakuthi, laying emphasis on aesthetic presentation and business promotion.

Director (Handlooms & Textiles) K Ibohal Singh, MD (MHHDCL) Basanta Singh and designers accompanied the ACS during the visit.

During the inspection, Bajpai reviewed the proposed event layout and issued directions for design and development of the main stage, pandal and exhibition stalls.

He emphasized an aesthetically appealing and well-coordinated presentation that reflects the unique identity and cultural richness of Manipur's handloom and textile traditions.

He directed that the venue be enhanced through creative decorative structures, thematic installations and innovative use of handloom products highlighting diversity of traditional fabrics, indigenous motifs and weaving techniques, including works of IDP artisans.

Bajpai laid particular emphasis on attractive business promotion points, interactive display areas and designated selfie points to enhance visitor engagement and digital visibility.

He said MANITEX 2026 should not be confined to exhibition alone but serve as a strategic platform for market expansion, buyer-seller interaction and global promotion, facilitating linkages between weavers, designers, entrepreneurs and investors.

He directed agencies to ensure timely completion of works with high standards of design and execution.

RIMS holds CME on handling medico-legal cases

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : The Department of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology, Regional Institute of Medical Sciences (RIMS), Imphal today organised a one-day Continuing Medical Education (CME) cum hands-on workshop on "Handling of Medico-Legal Cases, Documentation and Medical Certification of Cause of Death (MCCD)" at the department.

The CME was inaugurated by Prof G Sunil Kumar Sharma, Director, RIMS, in the presence of Prof Th Meera, Head, Department of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology, along with HoDs, faculty members, doctors and students.

The programme aimed at enhancing knowledge and practical competencies of medical professionals in proper handling of medico-legal cases, accurate documentation and appropriate certification of cause of death.

Speaking on the occasion, the Director emphasized that doctors must understand medico-legal aspects of their profession, particularly in handling deaths and documentation.

He stressed the need for accurate, clear and error-free records, adherence to updated legal provisions and regular training of medical staff.

Speakers covered baseline knowledge, MLC response, medical ethics, informed consent, injury documentation, evidence, chain of custody, MCCD principles and practical case scenarios.

Hands-on sessions strengthened understanding of standardized documentation, accountability and legal compliance.

Manipur Hawkers Association appeals to clear newspaper bills

By Our Staff Reporter

IMPHAL, Nov 3 : Manipur Hawkers Association has appealed to all subscribers to clear pending newspaper bills including outstanding dues.

In a press release, General secretary L Surjit Singh said newspapers are being delivered daily to subscribers through hawkers despite hardships.

However, many subscribers have not cleared monthly bills and dues accumulated over previous months.

He said Ningol Chakkouba is approaching and hawkers, like others, wish to celebrate it with their families.

Clearing bills on time would greatly help hawkers in managing household expenses and participating in the festival.

The association further appealed to subscribers to extend cooperation by clearing bills at the earliest.
